CORPORATE PARLIAMENT KIDS SHOW GENERAL RULES

1. All parents and guardians should ensure that your children comply with the code of conduct and the participating rules of the show.
2. All parents and guardians should ensure that your children comport themselves at all times during the productions of the corporate parliament kids Show and its ancillary productions.
3. Due to the nature of this live show, toddlers and babies cry will destruct and destroy the productions. Therefore, we admonish all parents not to attend the show with babies and toddlers.
4. All parents, participants, contestants, friends and families are advised not to leave their belongings and properties unattended.
5. Users of any of our official social media platforms are required to comply with the rules and regulations of engaging on the platform.
6. All participants, contestants, parents, guardians, friends and families are required to stay always in their designated areas unless otherwise instructed by an authorised member of staff.
7. All participants or contestants, parents and guardians should note that all our official social media platforms are not for private post, bickering, gossips, arguments, fighting, personal marketing and promotions etc.
8. Corporate parliament kids Show management is not responsible for lost items or damage properties.
9. All participants should report at least an hour and half before the commencement of the show.
10. All parents and guardians are responsible to ensure their children research, study and practice their tasks before contesting.
11. All parents and guardians are required to comply with all regulations posted on our official social media platforms for effective and efficient work coordination.
12. Note that if registration/ administration fee is applicable then it is not refundable. All voting monies are not refundable or transferable.
13. All parents and guardians are not allowed to argue, insult, use vulgar, abusive, racist language on any of our official social media platforms
14. All parents and guardians should channel all complains to the appropriate provided contact details indicated by the management.
15. All persons who damage any of our property will be solely responsible to reinstate or repair them with immediate effect.
16. All participant, contestants, parents, guardians, friends and families who are found misbehaving or involved in any form of misconduct will be handed over to the disciplinary committee for the appropriate action.
17. The 1st, 2nd and 3rd winning positions of the Corporate parliament kids CP1 and CP2 competition will be determined by the total results of the judges' marks 40% and public votes 60% on the grand finale.
18. All parents and guardians should note that voting portals such as the APP, WEB and USSD adopted by the management of corporate parliament kids show is managed and controlled by third party IT entities and their operational rules and regulations apply accordingly. Per the event where there are issues beyond our control we will do all we can to get them resolve it as soon as possible.
19. All extra activities for the development and entertaining of the contestants may incur travelling and other expenses. This will be determined by the management when applicable and communicated in advance.

20. All parents and guardians should note that corporate parliament kids management; work in partnership with third party media houses for the TV broadcast of the show. Per the event were we face production issues, delays in telecast, or encounter technical challenges from the third party entity, corporate parliament kids management will do all they can to ensure that the third party restores the telecast as soon as possible. Per the event where the allocated TV airtime is consumed and the show is not ended, the show will continue on our social media platforms.

21. All parents and guardians should note that per the event where we are informed by the third party TV station that they cannot broadcast the live program because of their superior content regulations, we will arrange for the telecast at the earliest time possible.
22. All parents and guardians should note that the management of corporate parliament kids will do all they can to ensure that those in charge of the voting and payment platforms, resolve all voting issues on the platform as soon as possible.
23. All parents are guardians should note that the voting and the payment platform are managed by a third party company of which we do not have ultimate control. However, per the event of any issue, the management of Corporate parliament kids Show will do all they can to ensure that they resolve the issue as soon as possible.
24. All parents and guardians should note that they are not allowed to interact with the wards of other parents or guardians unless authorised by the parent or the guardian.
25. All parents and guardians should note that we will not supply food and drinks as well as water for health and its related issues.
26. All parents and guardians should note that all official information requested on the allocated or provided contestants' social media platform needs prompt action within the time lines provided by the administrators of the platform. Late responds may dismiss the contestant from that particular contest. Failure to respond may dismiss the contestant from 2 episodes.
27. All parents and guardians should note that they are allowed to engage Chaperons, trainers or coaches to assist in the preparations of their wards for their performances.
28. All parents and guardians should note that during the show they might be called upon to endorse the program when applicable.
29. All parents and guardians should note that there might be official home and school visits with prior notice for contestants who qualify to the finals.
30. All parents and guardians should ensure to comply with the producers and director instructions during the production of the show.
31. All parents and guardians should note that there might be short meetings after some shows when applicable.
32. All parents and guardians should note that a reality show is full of emotional challenges because of its nature of competition. We therefore admonish all parents and guardians to ensure to educate and prepare your wards for such moments especially during eviction moments.
33. All parents and guardians should note that the names and its spellings provided for contestants from the unset cannot be modified throughout the show.
34. All parents and guardians are advice to keep records of their voting for reference when applicable.
35. All parents and guardians should note that further applicable rules and regulations will be posted on the official contestant WHATSAPP group page as and when applicable.

